

SECRET AGENT GADGET INSTRUCTION MANUAL

Antidote Pack: If you suspect that you've been poisoned, use the GPF's Antidote Pack to save your life. Figure out which part of your body is being affected and place the right vial in the syringe. Each vial is marked with a name of a body system: Cardiovascular, Immune, Muscular, Nervous, Respiratory, Skeletal. Jab the needle into the upper part of your bottom, and release the serum. It could take as long as 15 minutes to work.

Scatta-Scooter: When you need to travel faster than your feet will take you, use the GPF's Scatta-Scooter. It looks like an ordinary scooter, but has a battery-powered engine fixed to the back. To re-charge, simply plug it into the mains for 1 hour.

'Flash' on Watch Phone: Effective today, all Watch Phones will be updated to include a 'flash' feature. With it, an agent can send a high powered flash of light in short bursts. Perfect if you need to temporarily blind someone, or to send a rescue signal if you're lost at sea.

Wax Statue Dust: The GPF's Wax Statue Dust can freeze someone stiff for a period of 1 hour. Just sprinkle it over a person's head and within moments that person's skin and muscles will be completely still. Their insides however will remain fully functional.

Chapter 1: The Madame

It was a hot summer night in a far away country. A large lady wearing lots of make-up and a pretty kimono was sitting on top of a chair in the middle of a room. Her ruby-red lips parted, and she spoke to the four men standing before her. The men were dressed in black from head to toe. Hanging from their cheeks were black veils. The only thing you could see was their piercing dark eyes.

‘OK, men,’ she said. ‘You’ve heard your instructions. Now go and claim my treasures.’

The men bowed and shouted the word ‘hai’ together. They held onto their batons, which were fixed to their sides, and then turned and ran out of the room.

Throwing her head back, the woman cackled with evil laughter. The glittery green powder that covered her eyelids sparkled in the light. As she brought her head forward, she smiled with smug satisfaction.

Now all Madame Midori had to do was sit back and relax. Within hours, her band of ninja thieves would return, bringing with them the treasures she so desperately wanted.
